PRESS RELEASE

Thirty-four kids of Braunform employees had fun spending “a day with the Indians” at the fourth activity day

At pleasant temperatures the fourth activity day for kids of Braunform employees took place at the fishing club of Bahlingen on Friday, 31 July 2015. A total of 34 children aged between 4 and 11 years came together at 9 o'clock to have fun under the motto "A day with the Indians". Clad Indians were awaiting the kids to tinker with them Indian jewelry in the creative corner. According to the topic, the children could decorate themselves with paint and glitter tattoos or could creatively express themselves when painting a common Indian tent. Furthermore, the "Anglerheim" offered enough green area to play and run outside. So the children could learn to shoot with a bow and arrow, or train with special bicycles their abilities. After lunch there was another special highlight: the brave Indians were allowed to ride on three ponys with accompaniment, which has inspired young and old kids.

The annual Braunform activity day has become a constant institution at the beginning of the summer holidays and is organized and supervised by a team of trainees of Braunform accompanied by the personnel and marketing department. Braunform performed this special day for kids together with the event agency “Zauberglanz” from Freiburg, which was responsible for the professional childcare of the 34 kids of employees and also provided the equipment.
