Jubilees have been loyal to the company for years.

In September 2017 the management of the medium-size company honors two employees for their long-term commitment. Stefan Adler und Bernd Morgenthaler can celebrate their 30 years of seniority. Such a long seniority stands for a high solidarity with the company, but also for motivation and pleasure in working. "We are very proud to have employees in our ranks who have been loyal to our company for decades. Nowadays, it is a special feature and distinguishes a family company", so Managing Director Pamela Braun.

At Braunform GmbH, which now employs 375 people, employees' qualifications and further training as well as self-responsibility are of highest priority.
